

We continue to update our mailing list and appreciate your help. If you are not the original resident, had a name change or the person is deceased please let us know. Hopefully as the current resident you will enjoy this issue. Please advise us if you would like to be removed (send the original person's name & statement that current resident requests removal). Do feel free to share it with others or send us any names/addresses of people you believe would like to receive it.

To save on postage you may email the information to: olaprayerhouse@gmail.com

We thank you for taking the time to do so.

God Bless You!
